His Majesty King Charles III
Sovereign Head
The Order of St John
Buckingham Palace
London SW1A 1AA

Your Majesty

All Members, volunteers, staff and supporters of the Order of St John join with me in sending our warmest thoughts and offering our sincerest prayers for your rapid and complete recovery from the health challenge that you currently face.

We know that you will be in excellent healthcare hands and will be given boundless love and support by Her Majesty the Queen and all the Royal Family. I hope that it is of additional support and comfort to you and them to know that so many people worldwide and especially from the Order of St John are wholeheartedly and deeply supportive.

We all look forward to seeing you back in good health and resuming the outstanding service of all your people, which is so widely admired and respected.

With all good wishes

Yours sincerely

Professor Mark Compton AM GCStJ
